Code: hnctxmq

*Please join the Google Classroom page using the code: hnctxmq

Part One: Read + annotate Thank You for Arguing, fourth edition, in its entirety.

There is an introduction and four sections of this book. For each of the 4 sections:

- Write a summary of at least 5 key points and a reflection (1 page) on each section. Consider what you have learned in each section, what you already knew, what you feel is useful information, and/or what you like/dislike about each section. Include at least 2 quotes/direct references to the text in each reflection (MLA format).
- Develop at least two original discussion questions for each section. (Directions are posted on G. Classroom). Make sure you reference the text specifically in each question (using MLA format). This work must be submitted by August 30, 2022.

Part Two: Read The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks by Rebecca Skloot

- Read The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks in its entirety. Take notes/annotate while you read.
- Complete a Dialectical Journal. The information for this journal is posted on Google Classroom. The close analytical reading of your novel and completed assignment is due to Google Classroom by August 30, 2022 which is before the first day of school. Your work must be typed and must follow the format provided on Google Classroom.

Part Three: Vocabulary and Terminology

Throughout this course you will come across many new terms that you are unfamiliar with, as well as many you already know. In order to give you a head start you are going to familiarize yourself with some of these words. A list of terms is posted on Google Classroom. Please define each one.

All summer work must be submitted via Google Classroom and is due by August 30, 2022.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY

Diman Regional expects all students to conform to the standards of academic integrity established herein by the school district. Academic dishonesty – including plagiarism, cheating or copying the work of another, using technology (computers, mobile devices, applications, services, etc.) for illicit purposes, or any unauthorized communication between students for the purpose of gaining advantage during an examination – is strictly prohibited.

Academic dishonesty can be defined as representing someone else's work as your own. It can take many forms, including plagiarism, sharing another's work, purchasing a term paper or test questions in advance, paying another to do the work for you, accessing someone else's academic work, etcetera.
