All students moving into the sophomore ELA Honors course are required to read this novel over the summer break. It is highly encouraged that you take notes on your book while you are reading.

In-Class Assessment

Be prepared for an in-class assessment during your first academic cycle. You may use the optional notes on the assessment as long as they are in your own handwriting and are in your own words.

This assessment will be included as an assignment in your first semester grade. Please be aware, failure to complete the assignment may have a negative impact on your first semester.

**ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY****

Diman Regional expects all students to conform to the standards of academic integrity established herein by the school district.

Academic dishonesty – including plagiarism, cheating or copying the work of another, using technology (computers, mobile devices, applications, services, etc.) for illicit purposes, or any unauthorized communication between students for the purpose of gaining advantage during an examination – is strictly prohibited.

Academic dishonesty can be defined as representing someone else's work as your own. It can take many forms, including plagiarism, sharing another's work, purchasing a term paper or test questions in advance, paying another to do the work for you, accessing someone else's academic work, etcetera.
