English 11 Honors
Summer Assignment 2019-2020

Any questions should be directed to Mr. Wagner at jwagner@dimanregional.org

Part One: (NonFiction) On Writing by Stephen King

A limited supply of books will be available at Diman for you to borrow over the summer. You may purchase your own copy on Amazon.com or Barnesandnoble.com. Barnes & Noble in Dartmouth will also have a limited number of copies available for purchase.

Please take notes on your books while you are reading.

On Writing is separated into sections. For the sake of this assignment, we are going to discuss the book as 3 sections:

I- pages 17-101
II- pages 103-249
III- pages 253-the end

For each section, please complete the following:

- Write a 1 page reflection (must be handwritten) where you discuss at least 2 key points. Provide textual support (include page numbers). This will be due on the first day of school.

Part Two: (Fiction) Huckleberry Finn by Mark Twain

You are to read this classic tale of childhood and friendship and expect an assessment when you return to school. Notes are optional.

Part Three: In-Class Assessment

Be prepared for in-class assessments on both novels during your first academic cycle. You may use handwritten notes on the assessment for Stephen King’s On Writing only, as long as they are in your own handwriting and are in your own words.

The assessments will be Friday, September 13 for A Week and Monday, September 16 for B Week.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY

Diman Regional expects all students to conform to the standards of academic integrity established herein by the school district. Academic dishonesty – including plagiarism, cheating or copying the work of another, using technology (computers, mobile devices, applications, services, etc.) for illicit purposes, or any unauthorized communication between students for the purpose of gaining advantage during an examination – is strictly prohibited.

Academic dishonesty can be defined as representing someone else's work as your own. It can take many forms, including plagiarism, sharing another's work, purchasing a term paper or test questions in advance, paying another to do the work for you, accessing someone else's academic work, etcetera.
